G. W. BROWN, Editor.

Letter from Gov. Shannon. position at Westport, while on his way Whether he did so or not we are not ad- condition. to Kansas, in regard to slavery. At the vised. It is said he went still further same time he discusses several other and poted for this pro-slavery candidate, telegraphic dispatch announced that he dence against the Governor, that we, and sity of some person vested with authori- show by his public acts that he is in faty to still the tempest seemed apparent. vor of the principles of the Kansas-Nea public reception from the people of Mis- We do enter our protest, however, with whom we have a friendly acquaintsouri at Westport. On his way up the against his attempting to foist a code of river distinguished persons, it is said, laws upon us, enacted by a people foreign were in the habit of introducing themselves to the Governor, closing with a not one of whom would have occupied a superior facilities for doing good ich flourish, "We are the 'border ruffians' seat in the Legislative Assembly of Kanspoken of by Gov. Reeder." It was re- sas Territory, could the principles of the ported to us on Sunday, by a gentleman Kansas-Nebraska bill have prevailed .who came up the river with him, that And we say further that we never will those demonstrations did not appear to submit to their infamous laws. meet the Governor's approbation, and we Gov. Shannon has the evidence, ere took fresh courage. We even dared to this, of the feelings of the people of hope that Lawrence, the most populous Kansas Territory on this subject. It an I central place in the Territory, might matters not whether Gov. REEDER furbe made temporarily his head-quarters, nished certificates or otherwise to a maand we began to cast about to see what jority of those men constituting the bocould be done towards furnishing him a gus Legislative Assembly of Kansas .suit of rooms worthy of such an officer. They obtained their seats by fraud, and On Monday another gentleman arrived have enacted a code of laws which every bringing the evidence of the Governor's free State voter of Kansas would chose degradation. He said he was present at to die before he would obey. Gov. S Westport on the Saturday afternoon pre- may array the forces of the Federal Govvious, and heard all that was said; and ernment against us, and may crush us that he carefully noted down the sub- with superior numbers; but we say to stance of his remarks. He is a gentle- him, -and we but speak the united voice man of undoubted veracity, of much of eight-tenths of the residents of the ability, and competent to do justice to his Territory,-You cannot enslave us! We subject. He furnished us a synonsis of know our rights, and no extra-judicial the Governor's speech, but to our ex- decision of Supreme Courts, no arbitratreme regret the article became mislaid ry determination of Executives, nor no or lost. He assured us that Gov. Shan- power of the General Government is sufnon, in his remarks, said, "that it was ficient to wrest them violently from us. but natural for the people of Missouri to Our purpose is to pursue the Right. extend the institutions of that State over and interfere with no man's prerogative. Kansas, since the commerce of the latter The Constitution and Laws of the counmust come through the former; and for try are ours by inheritance, and we are himself he was willing and desirous to not so craven as to allow them to be used see those institutions so extended. It for our enslavement. Gov. Shannon can would prevent the civil discord which learn a lesson which will be advantageous otherwise must prevail between the two to him by reading the early history of the governments." We do not pretend to Revolution; and if he wants a case in give the language as reported to us ver- point where Executive authority came in batim, but the substance as pear as we conflict with popular will, he will find it

That speech at Westport was received by nearly if not quite every person present as an endorsement of the pro-slavery of Liberty" to array themselves against movement along the border, and a desire the powerful government of the mother on the Governor's part, to extend the institution over Kansas. The populace so individual and personal enslavement, and understood him, as is evidenced by their although few in numbers, and surroundrepeated applause during the remarks.— ed by innumerable adverse circumstan-Every anti-slavery man there, whom we ces, yet they triumphed. We never exhave heard speak of the matter, so un. pect to see Kansas occupying a similar derstood him; pro-slavery editors so un- position to the United States which the ders tood him, and so published in their American Colonies did towards Great respective journals. The Frontier News Britain, and are firm in the conviction -published at Westport, where the that the powers that be could never drive speech was made-the Squatter Sover- us to such a position, and yet we would eign, whose editor, we believe, was on advise to it before we would submit to the ground, and, as we before remarked, the gross outrage of having a code of laws the entire border press came out and cor- enforced upon us enacted by men who rected themselves in regard to Gov. came from a foreign State, who have no interest in the soil, or the freedom of the Shannon's position, and represented him as sound on the slavery question. Gov. people, and whose only object was to re-Shannon must have seen those papers, duce the actual settlers to a condition inbut he made no denial of the truthfulness limitely worse than Russian serfdom. of their report. The news was sent East, /y The Governor bids the people of Kanand was the subject of remark in every sas to seek redress in the Courts of Juspart of the country. The President's tice, or at the ballot-box. Is it his in-Cabinet, while in session on a grave di-tention to add insult to injury? The piomatic question, learned the facts, and Courts of Kansas are the tools of the were indignant at the procedure of their Legislative Assembly elected by the official. Secretary Marcy was reported mercenaries of the slave power, and of to have shown his ill-humor at the occur- course will do their bidding. The Surence publicly. It was not until after preme Court of the Territory has a mathese facts were returned from the East jority of pro-slavery men upon the bench, that Gov. Shannon even hinted at a de- one of whom was the constant adviser of nial that his speech was not truthfully re- that body during its session, and it is ported. In the meantime he showed by believed passed his opinion on all laws unmistakable evidence that he was wedded to the slave power. To an impartial ded to the slave power. To an impartial observer every movement of his would observe every movement of his would observe every movement of his would observe every movement of his would
observ

The Herald of Freedoin. upon the stump at Wyandot and endorsed in advance. What hope, then, from the Whitfield as a candidate for Congress, Courts?

who was run as a pro-slavery candidate The ballot-box: We hope to get reand nothing else, and who based his dress there, but not through that corrupt Lawrence, Saturday, Oct. 27, 1855, claims for votes upon the fact of his be- and oppressive engine, as made by a boing an original pro-slavery man, and the gus Legislature. No man can approach first person who made a speech on that that ballot-box without doing violence to We give on our fourth page a lengthy side of the question in Kanssa Territory, his birth-right. He becomes a vileslave letter from Gov. Shannon, in which he The Governor promised to go to Fort -a tool of base-hearted and villainous takes occasion to deny that he defined his Scott, to be present at a similar meeting. men, who degrades himself to such a

Miller, the lying editor of the Free questions which are of but little interest thus virtually endorsing his principles. State, has another falshood about us this thinks it would be a matter of "bad taste terference, and in his letter to us justifies tion" down to the present. He is the subject calculated to excite the feelings, censure upon Gov. REEDER. With all the "end justifies the means," and has not over eight hundred of the latter. passions or prejudices of his audience," these facts as they appear to the free State represented conversations &c., purport. Lawrence, 557 Lit. Sug. Creek, 41 on that occasion. They thought as the settlers of Kansas, the public can judge ing to be held with us, and other actions Blanton, Governor does on that subject, and this is whether the Governor was laboring under of ours, and in every instance they were Palmyra, the secret of their hostility to him. If it a wrong impression when he penned known to him to be false. In his ar- Bloomington, 116 Wyandor, shall appear to their satisfaction that he did not express himself definitely on the We had supposed the evidence of the ery assertion made in that paper in requestion, a great source of their ill-feel- Governor's position was too palpable to gard to us was untrue. We again re- Topeka, admit of a denial. He ought to know peat it, and find Mr. Christian, like an honorable man and gentleman as he is, Ohio, was appointed by President Pierce tion elsewhere, better than any other per- has published a card in the Free State to assume the Executive chair in Kansas, son; and yet the evidence is all against denying having any such conversation in place of our much esteemed Reeder, him. One gentleman has offered to fur-with us as Miller represented, and yet Osawatomie, gave us cause for hope. We canvassed nish us an affidavit of the truthfulness of Miller has the effrontery and meanness Potawatomie, all his antecedents known to us, and Mr. Redeath's report of the Westport to charge Mr. Christian with quibbling. Rock Creek, finally came to the conclusion that he speech, as published in the Missouri That card was voluntarily furnished the St. Mary's, would not play the low truckling dema- Democrat, and subsequently copied by Free State by Mr. C., without any pro- Pawnee, gogue, but would prove to be a Governor us. We are assured that any number of curement of ours, and stamps the LIE Council City, with a "back-bone," a feature indispen- affidavits can be procured of pro-slavery deep in the forehead of Miller, yet he Ridge, sible to such an officer in Kansas. The as well as of anti-slavery men in proof of prefers to stab his own friend in peferpro-slavery presses, it seems, came to a the Governor's pro-slavery position. His ence to doing us justice. He also represimilar conclusion, and their curses of speech was first reported in the Missouri sented we had made propositions to Dr. President Pierce for the appointment Democrat, and we shall expect to see in- Wood to do public printing for him.were loud and repeated. These demon- controvertible proof furnished of its cor- This he should, and probably does know strations from that quarter gave us still rectness to that paper. Nevertheless, it was fulse, for we never had a word of greater cheer, and we waited with anxie- would afford us the greatest pleasure to conversation with Dr. Wood on such a ty the arrival of our new Governor. A be satisfied, with all this array of eviupon the Doctor as a pro-slavery man, Calhoun, had left Ohio for his journey hither; and the whole public, were in an error, and and knew that the Free State was indebtanother that he had passed St. Louis, and that he was in favor of freedom in Kan- ed to him for its existence, and it would was on his way up the river. The excite- sas. We will be satisfied, even, if he have been a foolish task for us to have Fort Riley, ment was running high, and the neces- will be silent upon the question, and solicited work of him under such circum-

On the first day of September last, brasks bill, and will favor the action of a in this place, and we are happy to recog-Mr. CHRISTIAN is a practicing lawyer Gov. Shannon arrived at Kansas City, majority of the actual residents of the nise him as a personal friend, pretty much and on the afternoon of that day accepted Territory in settling this vexed question. The only pro-slavery man in the country Lawrence, ance. Presuming that he might want work, as we have done on one or two occasions in the Herald, and reiterate again now. We hold ourselves in readiness to execute any order from any man. save printing circulars and election ti kets for the pro-slavery party on the eve of un exciting election, and will work for Dr. Wood, if he wants, although, as we hefore stated, we are conscious that the Free State is his recognized organ, and he will, of course, seek that office for his

We had hoped Miller would have the decency to not repeat his infamous falsgoods about our parents. But he has one so, and deserves a kick from every espectable man he meets for doing so ontemptable an act. Once for all we epeat; there is not a shadow of truth in hat assertion of his.

We asserted in our last issue that was probable Miller was drunk when he enned the article in his issue of Monday. He may tell as much as he will about our slandering him, but there is not a nan of observation in Lawrence who has not seen Miller almost beastly drunk rom intoxication several times, during the last few weeks; and the habit is pecoming so confirmed upon him as to be a source of pain to his friends. If ur public exposure of his vile and degraling habit shall awaken him to a conciousness of his debased condition, and he shall reform, we shall also have hopes that his character for veracity will im-

Miller says he will "live down" the in Gov. Hutchinson and the people of charges we have made against him .-We hope for the honor of his friends he It seemed a fatal error for the "Sons will quit "living down" in the gutter, or in any condition so closely approximating to it as he has been found doing for

It is a disagreable task to strip the ion's skin from the donkey, but it must be done, that the public may see the thing as he is. We have done so Miller's case, and hope he will not be fool enough to put it on again so as to tion, and again strip it off, showing still farther his naked deformity.

south of the Santa Fe road, at the crossing of Forty-Two. Mr. PHENTS has traveled much over the Territory, and is fully convinced that this section furnishes the best timber and bottom land which and the very best of well water can be found at the depth of but thirty-five feet The settlers there, at present, are all from Indiana-true as steel upon the question kindred sentiment a most cordial welcome. To those desirous of finding a good farming locality-we say, go to

The following is the vote, as far as

throughout the Territory. It is probable us, not "probably" intentionally, but apprehensive of involving themselves in himself so far we take pleasure in withto the public, and yet, for the truth of The Governor has apparently studiously week, respecting a conversation we had "the powers that be," and still others against Mr. Porrer based upon that inhistory, it is well the facts should be stat- avoided anti-slavery towns, and associa- with Mr. Ellior. Miller knows that for want of notice; while along the vidious remark of his. ed, as it is presumed he is better cognition with anti-slavery persons, and a pubstatement of his was false, like every border, and in some of the strongholds

Mr. Porter seems to think it our duty

I have seen them allowing matters of and confirms the previous good opinion ing the sleep of death for the last fifth. zant with them than any other person. lie reception from the actual settlers in the other one he has made in regard to us of pro-slavery ism no polls were opened to regain our "old home" in Penn-

> 16 Little Osage, 7 Grashopper 35 Pleasant Hill. 131 Hickory Paint, 31 J. Crane's, 24 Ocena, 7 Doniphan, 4+ Harding's, 74 Bur-Oak. 56 Big Blue, 30 Waubonsa, 19 Iowa Point, 28 Columbia, 76 Scott's Town, 48 Hampden,

Total No. of votes cast,

Whitfield's Vote. The vote for Whitfield, as published 29 Linn, Wolf River. 23 lowa, 28 Wayne, 22) Washingto 131 Brown, 7 Alexandria 54 Wyandot. Yellow Srings, 103 Kickapoo, 101 Delaware. 49 Leavenworth of the pro-slavery party is polled at ten from your location in Massachusetts .enworth, are sparsedly settled. These ten us an opportunity, without interference districts poll 1757 votes, two-thirds of on your part, and never mind the "free the entire pro-slavery strength. If this soil papers with flaming heads, published vote was thoroughly purged-as it will in a small mud cabin city, on purpose to be before a Congressional committeeit would be found that less than 1,000 sourians, and excite the pitty of the peopolled for Whitfield.

86 Shawnee,

We published no paper last week owing partly to being short of compositors, and partly to a resolution on our part to publish no paper in the future. save once in two weeks, until we get information from our stock of paper whichwe ordered from Cleveland, Ohio, several weeks ago. We hope to have intellirence from it within the next two weeks. and learn of its arrival at Kansas City: should freeze up, ere the arrival of our winter supply of paper we shall be compelled to use a smaller size, which is already in the warehouse at Kansas City. The facts of our passing over a week or any other time, will make no difference with patrons, as we shall give a certain number of papers for a year, whether it requires a longer or a shorter time to publish them. Let those find fault with our arrangements who are ignorent of the embarrassing circumstances which surround the publication of a newspaper in this Territory. We have been connected with the public press for several years, and supposed we were thoroughly posted with all the difficulties surrounding the business, but we concede we never dreamed gorgeous appearance after night as it while in the East, of the vexations which lights up the beavens with lurid glare can occur in printing a newspaper. If A law must be passed, as soon as there we had a heavy capital to invest in the is a competent body to act upon the enterprise at this time, with our past question, making it a penal offence to set experience here, we could go to work these fires. Great damage is frequently and do something; but our means are ex caused by them. We have learned of compel us to give him another flagellaerty, and every variety of shifts to meet being burned during the late fires. our expenses from week to week. We feel pained and humiliated to mention We are informed by Mr. J. H. PHENIS, these facts, but the "truth will out" ountry bearing this name presents a fine and give the friends of the paper an op- commence business in than in Lawrence. opportunity for those in search of claims. portunity to bestir themselves to raise The public mind is prepared to receive

Corrections. By a letter from Gov. SHANNON, in another column, it will be seen he denies receiving the petticoat at Chillicothe, in instance, so far as we are acquainted, And the soonerour true position is known 1840. We are glad to learn of the error where it has been commenced in season, before the country—as bad as it may be we were led into by the statement of an- and properly applied, it has resulted faabundant supply of the purest water; other, and also glad to observe that the vorably. It will afford us pleasure any time to make corrections in our columns of in- sas, and forcibly reminded us of Penn- ties and injustice done individuals by correct statements which may appear to sylvania weather "about these days" in one of these writers. The charge that received, cast at the election on the 9th News Letter, concedes that his statement. of October. No person was allowed to made sometime since, that "the editors vote who had not resided in the Terri- in Kansas are hired to stay there and tory for thirty days immediately pre-concoct large stories for the Emigrant Aid ceding the election. We will endeavor Company" was "probably" incorrect. to give the official vote in our next regs. and bases his reasons for arriving at such lar issue. The vote is much smaller a conclusion upon a private letter from than it would otherwise have been, owing us. Very well, we will be content with to the general sickness at that time a partial correction of the wrong he did

It will be a source of true pleasure to the residents of Kansas to learn that so distinguished a person as the Governor distinguished a thinks it would be a matter of "bad taste and out of place, to have introduced a subject to have introd have adopted Kansas as our permanent home, and a similar vow to that taken by them is registered in heaven as taken by us for securing the freedom of this Territory. That vow shall be fulfilled to the letter, or all shall be sacrificed to attain it.—What is gold, or the securing last ways hold.

The world has ever seen, and to restrict the within its limits. It tells plainly and distinctly, and emphatically that the days claim of disinterested love and onerous labor for Kansas.

And now, that the public will understand better the true position of Council Yours, with respect.

Yours, with respect.

WILSON SHANNON.

This exposition, I think, has happened at the read and obeyed.

I attended the great Fusion Republication of the part of this company. I award to them all they claim of disinterested love and onerous labor for Kansas.

And now, that the public will understand better the true position of Council Yours, with respect.

WILSON SHANNON.

Gettingin Trouble.

> Many have come to Kansas, and after learning the imaginary dangers that environed them, and fearing extermination with a perfect unanimity of feeling and such as perfec from the "border ruffins," have apparently adopted the motto that "He who fights and runs away May live to fight another day," that our residence of nearly one year here, will enable us to approximate much By examining the above returns it nearer the truth with our statements in precincts, all of which places, save Leav- Being thus satisfied we ask you to give inflame the fiery passions of the Misple at the East." We will endeavor to get along with these things without as-

Doct. WM. O. SCHAREFF, E. o. s., alias .s.s., left town on Monday last for the A.s.s., left town on Monday last for the other things united to bring it about.—

East, whether with the intention of acown Hungary and show by his actions in what their intentions and purposes are, defence of the graves of his ancestors that and what means they will use to accomhe was not the coward his acts would indieate since his residence in Lawrence," mination to put it down, and to restrict Should it so happen that the Missouri or whether he seeks some new locality to it, than all the Abolitionists in the world what part of Kansas have the paupers they do so we cannot divine. The Conshow his prowess, we are not advised .- ever could have done. Certain it is; since we promised the publie the benefit of a "personal sketch" of demeaned himselt with great decorum -To our surprise he has indicated no time for the closing up of that little "affair of honor" between us which still remains unsettled. He should have called and subscribed for the forthcoming volume recounting the "Exploits of the Earl of fair land. But liberty shall arise, and, Scharefinisten in pursuit of the Nigger,"

The prairies are on fire, and present a Hydropathic Physician. A first rate hydropathic physician, Cottonwood Creek is twenty miles south means to sustain it, as to wait until it is such a physician, one of experience, and

For the Herald of Freedom. Letter from New England. PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 28th, '55. Mr. Korror .- Having been engaged for some weeks past in traveling and lecrespect to this subject. I have some-times almost been led to doubt this when The President, as a whole, is candid, in due time died out, and has been sie to it whenever we choose, but we would comes up, like the "voice of many waprefer to part with it and expend the pro- ters," from the East, and North, and prefer to part with it and expend the pro-ceeds in laboring to make Kansas a free State, though it should be necessary to "seven fold thunder," "No more extensink every dollar in the enterprise. Our sion to slavery!" It is the voice of the ancestors pledged "their lives, their for- Sovereigns, intelligently uniting and ranted by the truth. This has been done citizen of my native State any other feet tuases, and their sacred honor," towards rising in their majesty and might, to with no intention of deceiving or missecuring the freedom of America. We stay the progress of the greatest evil that leading, but to encourage emigrants. I er on any occasion gave utterance to an honor, or life even compared to freedom. can Freedom Convention, last week, held the right time; for, as I understand, the honor, or life even compared to freedom. Can Freedom Convention, last week, held at Worcester, Massachusetts. There company were taking steps to infuse new were present from six to eight thousand was the emphatic language of Pakick Henry. He did not expatriate himself of their leaders. They have thrown for the purpose of securing freedom and aside their old party shackles and all might lime; for, as I understand, the company were taking steps to infuse new energy into the work by forwarding all the funds they can command for the purpose of erecting buildings &c. Mr. Written a long letter to Sam. Medary of Winchell holds the money in his pocket. Ohio, denying that he made a speech use the funds they can command for the purpose of securing freedom and aside their old party shackles and all might be funds they can command for the purpose of erecting buildings &c. Mr. Written a long letter to Sam. Medary of Ohio, denying that he made a speech use of the funds they can command for the purpose of erecting buildings &c. Mr. Written a long letter to Sam. Medary of Ohio, denying that he made a speech use of the funds they can command for the purpose of erecting buildings &c. Mr. Written a long letter to Sam. Medary of Ohio, denying that he made a speech use of the funds they can command for the purpose of erecting buildings &c. Mr. saving life, and he is a coward and slave nor considerations, and have united on the one great principle of restricting with the "Local Board," put under conslavery and extending freedom. Hence- tract a respectable public house with all expression has not often been witnessed to improve the city site.

them that the free State residents of Kan- if equalled in the Territory. And a few he did make a pro-slavery speech hence their exit from the Territory was rather hasty. Whether our friend of the News Letter adopted that motto we are not advised, but the fact of his leaving our beautiful country so hastily, and his advice to us to do the same, would be strong circumstantial proof against him.

Friend Porter, "the hatchet is burried and the pipe of peace is smoked."
You look after Massachusetts matters, national matters if you please, and we will look after our private affairs and the look after will look after our private affairs and the and make them actual settlers there." opportunities for investment, will see interests of Kansas. We are satisfied These sentiments were received with their gain at this place, and at all early will be observed that the principle vote regard to the country than you can do taken hold of the work in earnest and will not tire or faint until it is accomplished, and slavery is contined within its present limits as with bars of iron .-And all the other free States are awake to the same subject, and have determined on the same result

If you ask what has produced this de sirable state of things, I will say that the outrageous course of the pro-slavery party, in passing the nefarious Kansa Nebraska act, thus destroying the Misellow, and their marauding bands of firerannical course of the so called Legislature in Kansas, have done more than all cepting of our advice to "go back to his shown their grasping disposition, and plish them-and have done more awaken a hatred of slavery and a deter-

Hence, it will not be strange if, when slavery is abolished .- as it surely will be his past life he has been an "altered relieved of its chains, ascribing their man," and has shown great good sense freedom to the action of these champions by keeping quiet. He has rarely been of slavery, not so intended by them, but seen in the streets since then, and always as to bring good out of evil. "The wrath of man shall praise Him, and the remainder of wrath He will restrain Let the inhabitants of Kansas and the riends of freedom take courage. God is on their side. Truth is almighty and will prevail. The dark pall of slavery shall not o'erspread the residue of this sustained by the might of a free people and the omnipotent arm of God, it advance in triumphant glory.

For the Berald of Freedom. Letter from Hon. P. C. Schuvler. COUNCIL CITY, OCT. 24, '55. ED. HERALD OF FREEDOM-DEAR SIR

I have just read your article headed

'Kansas operations in New York." of September 221, and the lengthy corres-October 6th. My absence caused the this week-shall be in time next week. delay of seeing these articles earlier. I am astonished beyond measure at the statements of the "Independent" touchwith means to establish a Water-Cure, ing the prosperity of Council City. Your f Cottonwood Creek, that the section of sometime, and we might as well tell it cannot find a better place in the world to strictures and statement of facts are correct scarcely without an exception. Your comments are just. I have nothing to say only as to the "facts" and charges of ome of the correspondents. As you east of Council Grove, and eight miles dead for want of the means of support. | who is a PHYSICIAN in fact, and they will state, Messis. Dwight and Walters furamply sustain him. The diseases of the nish evidence substantiating the correct-ness of your statements. Humiliating as the truth is, still it is better it should the Water-Cure treatment, and in every be told and widely published than a lie.

the sooner shall our prosperity begin.
I should let these mat ers pass in silence, believing that you have treated the subject tairly and did all parties sim-Tuesday last was a cold day for Kan- ple ju-uce, were it not for the personalicorrect statements which may appear to sylvania weather "about these days" in the prejudice of Gov. Shannon, or any October. The high winds are the source ous gossip" and "mendacious state-other person. If there are no facts to of all our disagreable weather, and the ments" of persons evil di posed, is efhis prejudice we are glad of it. We unpleasentness arising from these are frontery on the part of the gentlemen un-sincerely hope he may yet show by his owing wholly to our open houses, which equalled. There is a malignity of purit. It was not possible for us to be

Our friend Porres, of the Westfield Original Correspondence. these statements to you. This I deny. me by yourself after the article com-plained of was written.

I call upon Mr. WINCHELL for the proo or the retraction of his charges of lying —as broad and as public as they have been made. Sinister objects are believed to be the foundation of his new-born is this, That in 1840, when making turing on Kansas' affairs, I feel disposed zeal for the prosperity of Council City. to write you, and through you the people His superciliousness and arrogance has of the Territory, for your and their enough y a parallel in his unserupulous vitucouragement. I think you have great peration. Mr. Winchell and myself have resolved, for the good of Council City, reason to be encouraged. So have all to be friends; but this is no bar to my that some remained away from the polls nevertheless a wrong. Having corrected the friends of freedom. It is often said, rebuking this wanton breach of amenity. This is an entire fabrication, not a west and doubtless correctly, that "the heart From this discussion no harm, but of truth in it when applied to me. & difficulty by coming in collision with drawing all the harsh remarks we made of the people is in the right place," in good would come, if courtesy was observed. This, I am happy to see you 1840 in relation to Col. Allen, of 0

the world has ever seen, and to restrict can charge no cupidity on the part of this other feeling. No such occurrance

As for our "location," nothing can be resented, we are in favor of pulting hi As for our "location, nothing can be resented, we are in later of plants."

As for our "location, nothing can be resented, we are in later of plants."

I had the honor of addressing this said against, but much in its favor. All right and allowing him to stant u things considered I think it unsurpassed his own bottom. If it is "PALSE"

Very truly yours, PHILIP C. SCHUYLER.

Commercial Correspondence Sr. Louis, Oct. 1, 1855. G. W. BROWN & CO .- GENTS. : For the satisfaction of persons having reight on the way which is shipped by B. SLATER to Kan-as, we will weekly on others, and to give to you the mark and number of to place, calling the border ruffian ackages. All who want their freight to pass through our hands it will be im- published as an apology for one of ortant to have their packages marked to our care; and it will also be of great ern waters. Mr. C. was one souri Compromise-the unlawful and advantage to have the weight marked on oppressive actions of Atchi-on and String- each package. This will show if anything has been taken out and overcharge eaters-and the unconstitutional and ty- of weight; the latter has often occurred by our not having on our Levee any means of weighing without employing a city weigher, which would make addi-

By the bills of lading received from Boston, your Messrs. Hutchinson, Harlow & Co. have a large stock of good on the way; and they have made heavy McCREA at the late Court in Leavenpurchases in our city, which show they worth, and yet the authorities persist is must have a prospect of large sales. In keeping him confined in prison. Why located? As has been represented by the hot bloods there will be a poor prospect for a merchant. Yours Truly. . Marks. J. Blood. Morrow C. Blood. J. Blood & Co., Geo. Reising. S. C. Pomrov. Chas, Newman, Simmons J. Leadbeater. Moser J. Jenkins, J. L. Hibbard. Mrs. A. Runyon, J. M. Winchell, H. H. & Co., Hant & Co.,

Sr. Louis, Oct. 13, 1855. LEMEN :- Annexed you will please find a statement of the number of packages and marks of goods which we have their case, if it does not conflict with the pondence relating to Council City, of are unable to send our price current Yours Truly,

Marks. M. A. Fairchild, S. C. Pomroy, Mosier, Jenkins & Co., Hutelinson, Harlow & Co., A. F. Whiting, S. C. Pomroy, Kansas freight in store quaiting or

(R) Care F. A. Hunt& Co., St. Louis M. Mumlord. C. E. Wall

vened in Topeka on Tuesday last. Every district in the Territory is rep-

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, SHAWNER MIS G. W. BROWN, Esq., -Sir:-In you paper of the 6th inst., you have publish ed a story in relation to myself which;

utterly false; stripped of its verbage stump speech at Chillicothe, Ohio, I A nounced Gen, Harrison in unmeasure terms, calling him an old granny, a ness, coat hero, &c.; for which the la lies no

The Kickapoo Pioneer does not Westport favoring slavery, and the Pi

Rev. Mr. Clark.

Rev. Mr. CLARK, who was so barbarious w treated on the steamer Polar Star, on Mis ouri river, save the false seprepro-slavery journals, representing Mr. Clark as making himself personally ob-noxious to every person with whom he came in contact by forcing his views udec. Every word of this is false, and most infamous ransactions on the Wes fortune to get acquainted with. been engaged for years as a teach his gentlemanly deportment and christi bearing has won the esteem of all me the violence extended to him

We are apprehensive he never surviv

No bill of indictment was found against stitution guarantees to him a socide and impartial trial. Who will pretend that he has received this, by being held in confinement, contrary to his will, long after the Court to which he was to be tried has adjourned.

We learn that McCREA's health is suffering badly from his long confinement and that his family are in very destino circumstances. The philanthropic should extend to him immediate relief.

Rev. Mr. ORVIS, of the Independ Press, published at Ravenna, Ohio, says.
"Mr. McCaga was once a personal at quaintance of ours, and we knew him be an earnest and true-hearted man-

We are informed that the officer appointed by the bogus Legislature are watching the Herald of Freedom ast iously to find an article on which to but a criminal prosecution. If nothing by yet appeared in the Herald to meet ther desires in this respect, if they will be so moral or revealed law, or the United States' Statutes, or principles of the erganic act, we will endorse it as our own. and give it a conspicuous place in our paper. If a subject is wanted on when to commence a prosecution for at fringement of the bogus Legislature are desirous of being that person

We observe that a meeting of the Nullifiers has been held in Leavenworth in favor of "law and order," and to denounce the free State men for repudiating the bogus Legislature. They appear is be deeply impressed with the streetly of the Free State Party to speaking disre spectfully of the law (?); and this is particularly refreshing when we observe that two of the principal actors in the meeting are men who assisted in lynching of PHILLIPS.

An extra supply of papers we ed oil this week, enabling us to su Kansas now center their hopes in this them in wrappers to all who desire them